PUREBRED II

by Erin Michael

This is the story of a still-goofy Mom of a now 10-year-old son named Finn, a story of a life filled with adventure... a story told by an artist whose work reflects her passions. Colored in the vibrant hues of a Western landscape, Purebred II mixes horses with cacti, eclectic bouquets of wildflowers with the textures of a life spent around barns, and the ever-present color-palette of a painter.

Even if your story doesn't include horses, this collection of versatile prints is ideal for quilts and garments, accessories and home décor. Use the floral print to make a boho-style skirt or bag, and the cacti for a shirt or pillow. The color-swatch print is one of our favorites for quilt backings and bags.
