Grand Haven: Laurie Simpson's Sweet Farewell

Written by Linzee McCray @seamswrite

Laurie Simpson is a quilter extraordinaire. The patterns she creates under the Minick & Simpson name include intricate piecing, appliqué, and the occasional touch of whimsy. Many involve handwork and hundreds of pieces of fabric, and Laurie often hand quilts the finished product.

Her start in quilting, however, was more modest. "I was maybe 13 or 14 and saw a quilt in Women's Day magazine that I thought was pretty neat," she remembers. No one in her family sewed, so Laurie bought small quantities of fabric and taught herself to handpiece blocks. "I was just a kid and then a poor student," she says. "So it wasn't until I was in my 30s that I got my first machine, a Featherweight."

Laurie Simpson holding her quilt, In the Garden (MS 2105)

In addition to her richly detailed patterns, she's known for the 65 lines of fabric she's designed for Moda, more than 40 of them with her sister Polly Minick. Their connection with Moda came in 2003 when Polly called to buy five yards of ticking fabric. She learned that Moda only sells to wholesale accounts, but her call was passed along to Moda's then-design director, Cheryl Freyberg. A Country Home magazine story featuring Polly's home had introduced Cheryl to Polly's style, and she asked Polly if she'd like to design a line of wool. Polly, an experienced rug hooker, admittedly couldn't sew on a button and called Laurie, her quilting sister, to see if it was an idea worth considering. Laurie excitedly said yes, and the design team was born. Polly retired in 2018 and Laurie has continued to design fabric, including her newest line, Grand Haven.

A Day at the Beach

Minick & Simpson fabric lines are inspired by vintage textiles, and Grand Haven is no exception. “The red, white, and blue collections are light, happy, and summery—and summer makes me think of beaches and cottages,” says Laurie. “I’m reminded of all the great beach towns here in Michigan—many of the collections have Michigan place names. Grand Haven will be the last one.”

Yes, you heard that right. Laurie is retiring from fabric design. “Moda has been so supportive and I felt so appreciated,” she says. “I’ve also come to appreciate what a nice guy Mr. Dunn is. I’m so fortunate to be working with them.”

Though designing patterns and fabric will be a thing of the past, she won’t be leaving the world of textiles behind. In response to demand from the customers Polly acquired through 28 years of selling antiques in New York, Nantucket, and through Ralph Lauren, Laurie will sell her one-of-a-kind quilts and Polly her hand-hooked rugs via the Minick & Simpson website. (The Minick & Simpson Etsy shop will continue to sell patterns.)

We appreciate the beauty and pleasure that sewing with Minick & Simpson’s beautiful fabrics brings to our lives, and we’re grateful for the many times we’ve been wowed by one of Laurie’s masterful quilts. We wish her well as she finds more time for travel, reading, and dog walking, some of the activities she intends to pursue in retirement.

“And of course I’ll still make quilts,” says Laurie. “It’s who I am. It’s what I do.”

Rouenneries Trois

French
General

Over 15 years ago, Moda asked us to design a collection of French-inspired prints, filled with the old reds and neutrals that were popular in France in the 18th and 19th centuries. We called our first fabric collection Rouenneries and it is, still to this day, one of our favorites. Since then, we designed Rouenneries Deux and in September 2024, we are excited to release Rouenneries Trois – the third in a series of antique florals and small prints in a traditional French palette.

We hope you enjoy this classic re-interpretation of a favorite collection from French General.

KT Favorites Backgrounds

Kansas Troubles Quilters

A lovely, warm background fabric can set the tone for your quilt, but those fabrics are usually the first to sell out at your favorite shop. Here's a collection of ten of my favorite backgrounds in shades of cream and tan that blend with all of my KT lines. Each piece stands alone as a background or sashing option, but I also love the unique, subtle color gradations when used together in these projects. Comfy Stars is the perfect quilt to layer on a bed with a colorful quilt for the season draped over the end. Make one of the classic Mini Charm quilts as a neutral background for a lovely tabletop vignette. Use these ten fabrics together or individually for a calming addition to your quilts. -Lynne

Daisy Lane

Kansas Troubles Quilters

As a child, I loved gathering flowers among the tall grass on our family's farm. Wild daisies were bountiful in shades of white to yellow and gold. Counting to see who had the most petals on a single flower and playing "Loves Me, Loves Me Not" was a perennial favorite.

My Daisy Lane collection brings back fond memories of childhood and the anticipation of sharing this special time with our grandkids as the fields bloom in the spring.

FIELD OF FLOWERS

KATHARINE WATSON

The inspiration for this collection was a big bouquet of garden flowers, collected in the early fall when everything is at its peak. Katharine used dahlias, zinnias, fennel, feverfew, and more collected from her own garden as the source material for an original linocut print. These patterns were based off the original linocuts and capture the abundance of a garden at the end of the growing season.

Laguna Sunrise

by Sherri & Chelsi

*“Keep your face always toward the sunshine...”
—Walt Whitman*

Those early mornings spent walking the shoreline in search of seashells were accompanied by salty air and a beautiful sunrise. Early morning at the ocean illuminates the water as the sky bursts with radiant hues. Our Laguna Sunrise collection reminds us of days shared driving down the coast, shorelines and shells, wildflowers blowing in the breeze, and the vibrant colors of vintage beach cottages and flowers.

We hope you will enjoy sewing with the gorgeous hues of our Laguna Sunrise collection. This carefully curated palette of some of our favorite colors combined with flowers and geometric designs remind us of the vibrance of those days at the ocean, of both sunrise and sunset, and of the colors that seemed to permeate the days and our memories.

It's been 10 years since my Fandango collection was released, and it's time to hit the dance floor again. This time, let's Tango! I've expanded the color range in this vibrant, energetic collection to include blush pinks and deep teals that harmonize with the golds, turquoise, greens, and reds with a dazzling modern pulse. Enjoy many of the classic patterns, a few newbies, and some twirling combinations with another beloved collection (can you spot them?). Turn up the music, embrace your creative spirit, and fling your heart into this upbeat, rhythmic Tango!

Dainty Meadow

by Heather Briggs of My Sew Quilty Life

Explore a beautiful meadow of greens, pinks, yellows, blues, and creams, where the blooms are small and sweet. The Dainty Meadow collection is inspired by wildflowers that are found in the most unexpected places. If you've ever stumbled upon an open pasture filled with a luscious blanket of color or a hillside filled with elegant stems blowing in the wind, you know the magic that wildflowers can bring! Some may call them weeds, but I call them beautiful unexpected gifts – an absolute delight! The Dainty Meadow collection reminds us to see the beauty in the small things, because even the smallest of things can be sweet.

Rosemary Cottage

by camille roskelley

Perhaps a result of a lifetime of living in the mountains and the desert, it's always been a dream of mine to build a little cottage near the ocean. There's just something about the salty air, the weathered cedar shingles, and beautiful climbing flowers and vines that will always have my heart. And in true east coast tradition, I even know what I would name her. Rosemary Cottage.

This fabric collection is what I imagine when I think of Rosemary Cottage. Lots of vintage finds and classic pieces mixed together in beautiful blues, linens, and soft pinks and greens. It's the perfect combination for coastal quilts that will leave you dreaming of rose covered cottages too.

Magic Dot Lella Boutique

Anna Kendrick says, "You can't have a bad day in polka dots." Quilts everywhere agree, and I love incorporating them into my collections. My favorite dots are dainty and varicolored – and have a knack for flying off shelves too quickly. That's why I'm excited to bring back the most popular combos of Magic Dot, along with a few new crush-worthy colors. Not only are they a perfect complement to your stash as a blender – they also love to stand in the spotlight when combined together. Mix and match your favorites for a dazzling Lella Boutique rainbow in all your creations.

RASHIDA COLEMAN HALE

AVAILABLE NOW, UNLESS STATED OTHERWISE

Speckled is a paint splatter texture layered over a solid dyed Ruby Star Cotton base fabric, creating a rich, deep print with lots of dimension. This collection is even better than solids for supporting all of our Ruby Star Society collections. All skus are RS5027 [color number]. 108" wide fabrics are noted separately and come on 200 thread count cotton.
