One of my favorite memories of the holidays was the annual advent calendar that my sister, brother and I shared every year. My mom always got it at the Hallmark store and behind each of the 25 doors was a piece of not so delicious, slightly old chocolate. It didn't matter how it tasted. I thought I was the luckiest girl in the world every third day in December when it was my turn to open the door.

That memory was the inspiration of our newest collection, "Countdown to Christmas". The collection is traditional colors of red, green, ivory and black mixed with numbers, words, stripes and dots. There are a few more whimsical pieces, such as the reindeer print which will make anyone smile. Although it is a "Christmas" collection, many pieces will work in any season. We have already combined several of these pieces with our other collections and love the possibilities.
